Federal Information Technology Centre

Driving force behind the German Federal Government's IT

Welcome!

Dear readers,

As Director of the Federal Information Technology Centre (ITZBund) I am very pleased to be able to give you an insight into the tasks performed by my organisation. We are the central IT service provider of the German Federal Government and have a political mandate. Primarily, ITZBund supports the Federal Government's administration with modern IT to allow it to reliably perform its tasks. Through our work, we make a contribution to society as a whole day in, day out.

The people who work for us are actively involved in shaping the digitisation efforts at Federal level. ITZBund will continue to play an important role in this important modernisation process and ensure that the state interacts in a modern way with citizens and economy.

ITZBund will continue to grow and is open to welcoming committed new employees. Please take a moment to become acquainted with us!

Best Regards

Dr. Alfred Kranstedt, Director of ITZBund

Profile of ITZBund

Central IT-service provider for the Federal Government's administration

We have a wide range of customers coming from the Federal Governments's administration. Our portfolio includes planning, development and operation from a one-stop shop. We perform highly critical processes around the clock in the areas of road traffic, customs, the budget, taxes, human resources, statistics, asylum, internal security and integration.

Contributing to IT consolidation at the Federal level

ITZBund was established in 2016 as part of the Federal Government's IT consolidation. We actively implement the consolidation of operations and services.

Driving force wielding modern technology

We fulfil demanding tasks and always have to keep our finger on the pulse of technological progress. We handle cloud computing, BI, AI and perform agile projects, among others. We always check which trends and technologies are best suited for our clients and tasks.

Attractive employer

As an employer, ITZBund offers attractive conditions and is certified as a family-friendly employer by the "audit beruf-undfamilie" (career and family audit).
